

SENIOR 2D ARTIST

JOB DUTIES

- Being the main 2D artist in the team, you will work closely with the Art Director to review and assess new 2D projects we receive
- You will be asked to work on different projects, including various art styles
- You may be asked from time to time to manage the other 2D artists in the team, and give them a training if you find it appropriate
- You will work closely with the Art Director to evaluate the time needed to complete a request
- Being the main 2D artist, you will have to study a game's art style and find ways to reproduce it on your own drawings

REQUIREMENTS:

Your profile:

- Academic background in Arts or equivalent
- Advance level in Photoshop. Knowledge of Adobe Illustrator would be a plus.
- Great understanding about human anatomy, proportion and perspective.
- Motivated and passionate about video games, good understanding of game development production processes
- Ability to accurately estimate time to complete tasks and manage priorities to meet deadlines
- Ability to follow and adapt to different stylistic guidelines
- Great understanding of composition, color, shading, lighting, post-processing

Expertise on at least one of these area: characters, background, layout UI (User Interface), Items, Object, concept art

Skills:

- Good level in 2D Art: hand-drawing, digital painting and illustration
- Able to read and understand emails written in English and reply
- Having good sense of initiatives, be original and inventive
- Strong organizational skills
- Great interpersonal skills
- Great sense of creativity and art
- Be patient and able to concentrate for long periods
- Be able to follow a brief and work on your own initiative
- Work well under pressure and when having strict deadlines
- Great artistic eyes and high attention to details
- Asking and giving quality feedback.

- Being able to collaborate with senior artists and supervisors instead of doing thing by yourself
- Maintain a good professional relationship with your colleagues
- Share ideas and experiences with other senior artists