BUSINESS ANALYST

Responsibilities

- Lead, shape, and facilitate analysis and feasibility work with stakeholders and product manager for emerging change initiatives to build the business case for project activity;
- Lead the requirements analysis with stakeholders and product manager to translate the business needs into a set of prioritized requirements; • Support stakeholders and product manager to write the business cases for approval relating to the product ensuring objectives, costs, and benefits and clearly defined;
- Lead requirements validation activities with the developers to confirm to the project that a solution based on the requirements meets customer needs and achieves the intended business objectives;
- Work closely with both product team and software development team(s) to fully understand business requirements and supply detailed feedback for the two areas.

Requirements

- Minimum 3 years' experience as business analyst for business application platforms;
- Experience in UML design, data modeling, and user stories;
- Proven ability in typical business analyst skills such as requirements engineering, business process analysis, and modeling techniques;

- Effective verbal and spoken communication skills;
- Certificates in Business Analysis is an advantage.

 WHAT WE CAN OFFER

- Very Attractive Salary Package and Other Benefit (1000$ - 2000$ NET)
- Chance to work with extremely professional team and working environment
- Balance of great work and FANTASTIC LIFE!
- Possibility to continuously learn and develop
- Exciting challenges and rewarding recognition